

TO TALK FOR IRISH FREEDOM

Prof. Arthur Upham Pope, a man of national renown as an orator, will lecture in El Paso Monday evening at the Woman's club in the interest of Irish freedom. He comes here under the auspices of the organization known as the Protestant Friends of Irish Freedom and the purpose of his lecture, according to Rev. Fr. A. V. O'Neil, is to show that the question of Irish freedom is not one of religion, but of politics and right.

Prof. Pope is the son of a Baptist minister and was recently connected with the University of California and Amherst college. He has been associated for several months past with the general staff of the United States army as a civilian adviser and was active in organization work for the war department during the world war.

BLANTON RAPS
LABOR LEADER

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24.—Senator Blanton today attacked President Wilson's policy of anti-labor legislation in a speech before the Senate.

Blanton said that when President Wilson issued his "order of the day" declaring that the "work of the labor leader" was "a menace to the country," he was "declaring that the labor leader was a menace to the country."

Blanton added that 6000 strikes occurred in this country during the year and that 21 times, President Wilson had to "compel men to work."

"Congress must either pass legislation which will give the labor leader a right to work, or it must give the labor leader a right to be respected," Blanton said.

Blanton said he was not a labor leader, but he was a laborer, and he was a laborer who was "a menace to the country."

First Arrivals of Spring

Spring Suits

OUR advance showing of spring suits next week will prove highly satisfactory.

The coats are short with ruffles and ripples at the hips and in accordance with Paris the shorts are shorter and quite narrow. Eton hip length coats are very much in vogue.

Swirling girdles of satin, grosgrain ribbon and cords trim many of the models. Some are embellished with touches of vivid embroidery, while others brag of smart shawl collars and Russian blouse effects.

Materials are:
Gabardine, serge, Poirer twill, Jersey, tricotine, Etouille de Laine. Colors are navy, tan, gray and sand.

Prices range $34.50, $39.50, $49.50 to $225.

Spring Dresses

THERE is a variety of materials as well as modes. Georgette is quite as fashionable as Almarette, a new material that is akin to tricotine, and Metcalfs find a definite place in the wardrobe of the fastidious, while others will not slight Gros de Laine Taffeta or Poirer Twill.

The short sleeve—and by short we mean way above the elbow, too—occupies a very conspicuous place in the realm of Spring fashion. Paris tells us that she has the audacity to wear these brief sleeve-lets without gloves, while New York, being a bit more timid, allows only an inch or two bare arm to show. What El Paso will do remains to be seen.

The "hipped out" effect with tight bodices and form-fitting models, is charmingly portrayed in many of the Popular Spring Models. Accordion pleating, side ruffles, wired skirts, stiff circular hip draping, lacy skirts, Victorian collars and Grecian neck lines are to be found in the advance showing this Spring. Trimmings have a tendency to be heading, brightly colored yarns and silver and gold embroidery.

Dresses Continued

Sport dresses in tricotine, crepe de chine and pongee are interesting items. The colors are pink, white and various combinations of colors. Prices range from $74.50 to $159.50.

Printed Georgette dresses in all the new shades are items of more than ordinary interest. Prices range from $69.50 to $189.50.
